Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Out of the more than 3,000,000 Ford cars
now in use, about sixty per cent have been sold to farmers. Probably no other one thing has brought to the farm so much of comfort and profit as has the Ford car. It has enlarged the social life, doubled the facilities for marketing, brought the town next door to the farm, multiplied for the farmer the pleasures of living.
A family car without an equal in low cost of operation and maintenance. We solicit your order for one now because the demand is large and continually increasing.

GEORGE BURKE, Grayling, Mich.

N. E. MICHIGAN PLAY PLACE FOR MILLIONS

RECREATION SPOT FOR PEOPLE OF MANY STATES.

Beautiful Region is to People of Many States What New England is to Those of Pacific Coast States

As the New England sea shore, inland lakes and hills have for generations been the playground of the people of the big cities of the east, so Northern Michigan, with its many miles of lake shore, its hundreds of inland lakes and its swift trout streams,
is rapidly becoming the big play ground for all of the rapidly growing middle west and is also reaching out for the people of the south and east.

The automobile is doing much to bring these people to northeastern Michigan, it having been a common occurrence this year to see machines with Florida, New York and Pennsylvania license tags on them, passing northward to some spot in the woods or on the lakes, while machines from Iowa, Illinois, Ohio and Indiana have attracted attention.

And permanent summer homes are springing up all over the district at points where woods and waters meet.
Along the lake shore there are scores of colonies of such homes, on Higgins and Houghton lakes they have sprung up as if by magic during the past few years, and on scores of smaller lakes isolated summer camps, where from one to a dozen families have established places for their annual outings may be found.

This year the Northeastern Michigan Development bureau prepared a splendid booklet, entitled "Health and Pleasure in Northeastern Michigan." Copies were supplied to boards of commerce and other organizations in the district and to private individuals who were asked to send them to their friends in other states. A. W.
Ramsey, cashier of the First National bank of Cheboygan, sent out a number of these, and the reply which he got from Walter A. Bonner, of the Third National bank of Greenburg, Ill., shows
the effect of this booklet on the red-blooded men who get them. Mr. Bonner writes back, "You have no business to do a trick like that. Ever since I got your nice little booklet exploiting northeastern Michigan I have not been fit for work at all. I suppose I won't be of any account for work until I am able to go up there and enjoy some of the things which it depicts."

From Gladwin comes the report that about 75 automobiles a week go thru there, en route to Houghton lake and its splendid fishing. At Greenbush a colony of Detroit People are erecting summer homes on Lake Hur-on's shore.

Five hundred summer cottages dot
the shore of Saginaw Bay for the first ten miles out from Bay City and more are being built every year.

Northeastern Michigan truly offers splendid opportunities to the man who wants to come here and work but it also holds out to the worker in every locality an alluring call to come here for the play spell which every human being needs at least once a year.

T-TOWN MILL TO RESUME OPER- ATIONS.

R. Hanson & Sons Sell Plant to Embury-Martin Lumber Company of Cheboygan.

Last week arrangements were made whereby the R. Hanson & Sons saw mill at T-Town was sold to Embury-Martin Lumber company of Cheboygan, who will begin operations
there within a week.

The operation of the mill at T-Town is but temporary and it is intended by the purchasers to run the plant about three months after which the machinery will be moved to Cheboygan county where the purchasers have several million feet of logs to cut.

The mill at Cheboygan of Embury-Martin Lumber company burned last week Thursday and this new arrange-
operations.

HUNTING SEASON IS OPEN FOR DUCKS AND SNIPES.

Season for Hunting Other Game Opens Later.

The open season for hunting ducks
and jack snipes opened here Tuesday and already some of our local sportsmen have gone out gunning for these game birds.

It will be unlawful to shoot deer in Crawford county this year, however there will be plenty to attract the Nimrods of Michigan and surrounding states so that they will not need to forego this outdoor sport. That has been the means of keeping many men from premature age and perhaps added a few years of life and youthful vigor. Almost any day along the trout streams and shores of the lakes there could be heard the drumming of the partridge and noises of other game birds and animals. It would appear to the casual observer that game will be a plenty this season. The open seasons for hunting in Crawford county this year is about as follows:
The open season for hunting and trapping beaver begins November 1st and closes April 15th, and requires a special license fee of $10.00. Muskrat season is from October 16 to April 14 in the region of Michigan north of range 20 north. This includes Gray-ford county. Bears may be killed at any time of the year.

The partridge season opens in the Lower Peninsula November 1 and continues to November 30 inclusive, and it is unlawful to take more than five in any one day and more than 25 during the season.

Wilson and Jack snipe season opens
September 16 and closes December 31;
15 may be taken in one day and not more than 25 in one season. Woodcock season opens October 1st and closes November 25th. Six may be taken in one day and 25 during the season.

It is unlawful to hunt or trap without a license. Resident licenses cost $1.00, non-resident licenses $10.00.
Residents of this state and their minor children are exempt from small game license fee while hunting on their own enclosed lands, upon which they are regularly domiciled.

APPLICANTS TO U. S. ARMY MUST BRING THEIR BIRTH CERTIFICATES.

Recruiting Station U. S. Army
103 Center Avenue,
Bay City, Mich.
Sept. 10, 1919.

Sir:
Owing to the fact that a number of young men from Grayling and surrounding Community have applied at this office for enlistment in the United States Army without proper credentials showing their age, causing them much inconvenience in making the trip from Grayling to Bay City only to find it is necessary for them to return to Grayling to obtain proper age certificates, request you publish the fact that all applicants for enlistment in the U. S. Army between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one years must have in their possession a school certificate, registration card,
baptismal record, or birth certificate showing they are eighteen years of age or over.

The city of Grayling and community has been officially designated by the War Department to come under the Bay City Recruiting office. This office has received a goodly supply of (Victory Buttons) to be issued to discharged soldiers and as Grayling is in the District controlled by this office request all discharged soldiers forward their discharge certificate to this office to be verified by the Recruiting Officer which is absolutely necessary before these tokens of appreciation from the U. S. Government can be obtained.

Very Respectfully,
George Violet,
Sergeant G. S. I., I-C Station.

PRESIDENT WILSON IN BOAT COLLISION

Ends the Busiest Day of Campaign in Seattle.

SPEAKS TWICE IN TACOMA

Reviews the Pacific Fleet, Attends Great Banquet and Speaks at Big Gathering at Seattle—Jokes
With Crowds on Way.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 15.—President Wilson's review of the Pacific fleet in Elliott bay was marked by an incident
having the possibility of serious consequences when the president's launch collided bow-on with a naval whale boat.

Arriving at the dock it was found the burge of Admiral Hugh Rodman was not on hand. Commander P. W.
Foote, personal aide to Secretary of the Navy Daniels, took over a naval launch on hand. Into this launch went President and Mrs. Wilson, Secretary and Mrs. Daniels, secret service men, secretaries and newspaper men.

As Commander Foote ordered the launch shoved off, the craft heeled over till the port rail was nearly awash.

Harbor Alive With Boats.

Elliott bay was alive with boats
from the fleet taking off last-minute spectators to the reviewing ship. Captains' gigs and whaleboats were criss-crossing among a hundred pleasure craft when Commander Foote ordered the naval launch to proceed.

With its powerful engine the boat shot forward virtually at full speed
from the dock. It had proceeded several lengths when it collided with the naval whaleboat which was approaching the dock.

The jar of the collision sent those standing in the president's boat to their seats, but aside from the shaking no damage was done. The president, in the after part of the boat, smiled
through it all.

The mishap came in the middle of the busiest day the president has had on his trip. In the morning he made two addresses at Tacoma. The first and shorter one was before more than 30,000 persons, who filled and overflowed the great Tacoma stadium. The second was delivered to 5,000 persons in the Tacoma Auditorium.

Saturday night Mr. Wilson was guest at a great public dinner at the Hippodrome, for which 4,000 tickets were sold. He did not speak there.
Later he was taken to the Arena,
where he delivered his argument for the League of Nations before a great and friendly crowd. He rested Sunday and left in the evening for Portland.

Wilson Jokes With Crowds.

On Board President Wilson's Special Train, Sept. 15.—When President Wilson's special train stopped for a few minutes at Pasco, Wash., a crowd surrounded the private car Mayflower and the president went out to shake hands and exchange greetings with them.

After telling several stories he wound up by making a short speech,
in which he said the war was "unfinished" until the United States had assumed responsibility for its pledges
that future wars should be made impossible.

When he asked how so large a crowd had gathered without having a band out, Mr. Wilson was told by one of the boys present that "the band's worn out."

Bribed the Band With $15.

Another boy wearing a faded band-man's uniform was thrust forward
then and presented as "the sole member of Pasco's brass band." The president remarked that he didn't look as though he had wind enough, and then an old inhabitant confided that "he had given the band $15 not to play."

The talk then turned to the prevailing dry weather. Mr. Wilson remarking that it was a sandy country.

"Yes," said a man in the crowd, "we have to have a lot of grit to live here."

One of the president's stories which got a long laugh was about a man who played golf and always said "Assassin" when he missed the ball. When they asked him why, he replied that Assassin was the biggest dam in the world.

"They're building a dam for me down in Georgia," added the president.

Thanking the crowd for coming out to see him, Mr. Wilson said in a brief speech that he regarded it as another evidence that the people wanted the peace treaty ratified.

Old Man Approves Heartily.

When he asked whether the nation
should not carry out its promise to do something to prevent war, an old man in the crowd waved his hat and shouted, "Yes, sure, sure."

As the train slowly got under way and Mr. Wilson was waving good-by to the cheering crowd, his attention was attracted to a man who ran along the track in evident endeavor to overtake the receding rear platform. When the president turned to him inquiringly, he puffed:

"Don't mind me; I only promised to get the last look at you from Pasco,
and I've done it."

Polos to Aid the French.

been signed between the French and

Plumb, who addressed a mass meeting at the state armory here.

Detroit—The Plumb plan for railroad ownership and operation was characterized as the entering wedge of a well developed plan for the nationalization of commerce and industry in the United States—"practically a repetition of the soviet government in Russia," said L. C. Boyle, of Washington, D. C., general counsel for the National Retail Lumber Dealers' association, in an address here.

Albion—The three-story Singer & Son's furniture store, whose stock was damaged over $10,000 worth from water in a fire in the Eslov block, next door, Aug. 31, completely collapsed when a portion of the fourth-story wall of the Eslov building crashed over upon it. The roof, three floors and the large furniture stock fell through into the basement, leaving only the brick walls standing. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Singer and Paul Burns, in the building at the time, narrowly escaped by a rear door.

Benton Harbor—Abraham Getz, 66, Michigan's only leper, is dead, after three years of intense and pitiful suffering. The case has attracted wide attention, as the victim tried to conceal his affliction. That he was not allowed to spread the contagion was due to prompt action on the part of Dr. E. R. Taylor, now city health officer, who discovered the case two years ago while serving on the draft exemption board. Getz came to ask exemption for one of his sons, and Dr. Taylor noted his condition.

Lansing—Notwithstanding the application to the Public Utilities Commission by the Michigan State Telephone Co. for permission to apply a new schedule of higher rates in Detroit, present rates probably will continue for a year or more. When the commission took up the application it developed that first steps could not be taken until the inventory and appraisal of telephone properties in Detroit had been brought down to date by the city's engineers. The commission will postpone hearings until the appraisal is completed.

Grand Rapids—Col. John Bersey, adjutant general, has signed he will appoint Maj. Earl R. Stewart, a member of the public utilities commission as commander of the new regiment of infantry, which is Michigan's allowance for 1919 in the reorganization of the National Guard. Maj. Stewart, who commanded the Grand Rapids battalion in France, says the new National Guard will have a vastly better standing than it has in the past. Two companies of infantry are being formed in Grand Rapids, four in Detroit and one each in Ionia and Grand Haven.

BOSTON POLICE ARE LOCKED OUT

PROPOSAL OF MEN TO GO BACK TO WORK TURNED DOWN BY AUTHORITIES.

NEW FORCE TO BE RECRUITED

Entire Militia of Massachusetts, Over 6,000 Men, Were Called Out to Maintain Order.

Boston—Police Commissioner Curtis shut the doors of the police department in the face of the striking policemen by announcing that he would not reinstate the men who had abandoned their posts. He made it known that he would proceed at once to build up a new force.

Governor Coolidge and Attorney General Bruce Wyman supported the stand taken by the commissioner.

The commissioner's action followed the strikers' acceptance of the suggestion of President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, that they return to work without demanding immediate union recognition, but without relinquishing any of their claims.

Guardsmen Patrol City.

Boston—With Governor Coolidge as commander in chief of the state's forces, in complete charge of the situation, the city last Friday took on a warlike appearance. Machine guns were mounted at police headquarters and troops, wearing "tin hats" by order of Adjutant-General Stevens, patrolled the streets. The order followed injury to several soldiers by flying missiles.

The entire militia of the state of Massachusetts, about 6,000 men, were called out when the policemen struck. Several hundred civilians were also sworn in as temporary policemen.

Meanwhile, shopkeepers, supplementing police and military protection by means of their own barricaded windows of their places of business, as if to withstand a siege. Boards were nailed in front of the glass to protect it from hands of hoodlums who have been roaming the streets.

A fight to the finish between the constituted authorities of state and city and the labor unions was indicated by developments in the strike. While Governor Coolidge was exercising his authority as commander-in-chief of the state forces, Mayor Peters was making it plain to labor leaders who visited city hall that the policemen's union would not be recognized.

The labor men were firm in their insistence that the police be permitted to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor and offered to guarantee that the police never would be called out on a sympathetic strike.

The strike of policemen was called by the policeman's union, Sept. 9, to compel recognition of their organization.

KILL ARMY BILL—CHAMBERLAIN

Senator Says Measure Is Most Autocratic Ever Proposed.

Washington—Characterizing the administration army reorganization bill proposing a regular force of 600,000 men as "militarism run mad," Senator Chamberlain, Democrat, Oregon, has submitted to the senate military committee, of which he formerly was chairman, an "analytical and explanatory statement" proposing that the measure be rejected entirely and congress prepare a new bill.

The bill is denounced as a "preposterous scheme," which "spells one man dominance, staff despotism and militarism to a degree never surpassed in the palmist days of the great German staff of the German army."

The spirit shown by the framers of the act, he charges, throughout is one of "consuming desire for despotic, unrestricted power—militarism run mad."

JUSTICE R. C. OSTRANDER DEAD

Michigan Supreme Court Jurist Dies Following Long Ill Health.

Lansing—Russell C. Ostrander, justice of the Supreme Court of Michigan, died suddenly at his home here Sept. 11.

Casualty List Is Now Complete.

Washington—Every American soldier who became a "casualty" in the war against Germany at last has been accounted for. A list of missing and unaccounted for which at one time was as high as 25,905, gradually was reduced until for weeks it remained at 2.

Of the total first reported missing, 23 per cent died; 16 per cent were found to be prisoners; 25 per cent were lost from their organizations in the confusion of battle but subsequently rejoined them.

U. S. OPENS STORE IN DETROIT

Surplus Supplies to Be Sold to Public Below Cost.

Detroit—A large department store, which, it is claimed, will effect a saving to the consumer of from 50 to 200 per cent, which begins business with an initial stock of surplus army food and other supplies valued at $1,000,000 and will employ a staff of 200 clerks, is to be opened in Detroit by the United States government next week.

It will be one of a chain of five stores similarly operated. The others are to be located in Chicago, Minneapolis, Columbus and St. Paul.

The new plan is the result of the government's determination to give the public easier access to its vast surplus stores. Business will be done on a cash and carry basis. Towns in Michigan wishing to trade will continue to receive purchases by parcels post, where they are unable to send representatives, the difference in the future being that their orders can be sent to Detroit and will be filled on the day received.

One thousand tons of staple articles will comprise the first shipment to Detroit. The government not only will pay all overhead, such as transportation and building rental, but will sell below cost.

BIG FIRE SWEEPS LONG ISLAND

Standard Oil Co. Plant Destroyed; Loss Runs Into Millions.

New York—Fire, which was fanned by a strong easterly wind completely destroyed the big plant of the Standard Oil company at Greenfield, Long Island, causing millions of dollars damage.

As soon as the alarm was spread 42 engine companies and two fire boats were on the scene.

The 20 acres of fire-swept territory looked like a scene in war devastated France or Belgium. Tanks were crumpled up; huge steel girders lay in tangled mass, few walls were left standing, and burning oil continued to flow along the surface, of Newton creek.

A fleet of 10 fireboats pumped torrents of water from Newton Creek. Several dozen tanks, which contain from 50,000 to 70,000 gallons each of crude oil, benzine, gasoline and naphtha, near the blaze were drenched in an effort to prevent the fire spreading.

JUDGE DIES IN LAKE MICHIGAN

Chicago Jurist Drowns While Wife and Son Look On, Helpless.

Muskegon, Mich.—Thrown from his motor launch into a heavy sea when the rapidly revolving fly wheel caught his trouser leg, Judge of the Superior Court Henry Guerin, of Chicago, drowned before the eyes of his wife and son in the storm-swept waters of Lake Michigan, Thursday of last week, after making a futile attempt to swim against the terrific undertow which has been prevalent on this side of the big lake.

The strain on the engine, when Judge Guerin was thrown from the boat, stalled it and it was impossible for his wife to steer the wildly tossing craft towards her drowning husband.

Judge Guerin had been spending several weeks at his cottage at Sylvan beach.

"350,000 Army Big Enough For Peace"

Washington—"There is no necessity for an army of more than 225,000 to 350,000 in peace time," Major General Leonard Wood declared before the military affairs committee of the senate. General Wood advocated an independent air service, "a small tank corps" and increases in coast defenses.

An officers' reserve of not less than 120,000 should be maintained, he said. "We should build up our reserves and reduce our regular army," was his judgment.

Gigantic Air Motor 1,000-Horsepower.

London, Ont.—An airplane engine said to be the largest in the world, of 1,000 nominal horsepower, developing 900 horsepower at normal working speeds, has recently been put under its first test at Wolverhampton, England. The engine has 12 cylinders arranged "V" fashion and weighs less than 4,000 lbs.

Special airplanes are to be built to suit the engine, while it is also probable that it will be fitted to some of the late giant airships.

Ben Yoder, lineman for the local Telephone company, seems to be having a streak of bad luck lately. Last Friday he was up an old telephone pole taking down a connection, when the pole which was rotten broke and with it he fell to the ground, a distance of 15 feet. He was strapped to the pole but fell with the pole under him. He was badly bruised about the arms and legs and had been at Mercy hospital until yesterday when he was dismissed. It was only a couple of weeks ago that he fell from a pole on which he was working and received a bad sprain of one arm.

The farmers of Crawford county are feeling happy over the big crops that this season promises. Every district reports that the season has been a bountiful one and, with the prospect of good prices is sure to be a great financial benefit to our farmers. The grain yields are the biggest that can be hoped for. Rye on many farms averaged nearly 40 bushels to the acre. Corn is sure to be a wonderful crop—some farmers believe they will get 150 bushels to the acre. Potatoes are sure to be a big crop and buckwheat, beans and other variety of crops are exceedingly promising. This is particularly true with all kinds of root crops.

He left last week to take up his new position and was accompanied by his wife and baby.

HARRY HILL PASSED AWAY.

Was One of Grayling's Most Highly Esteemed Young Men.

Many hearts were saddened, when it was learned last Saturday morning that Harry Hill had passed away. Altho for several days the end was looked for by those who watched over him, yet it came as a severe shock to many. He had been ailing since returning from service in June, and on Sunday September 7th, was taken seriously ill at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Bunting, where he had made his home for the past year and a half. When he was first stricken Sunday evening his friends had little hopes that he ever would be well again. He was given the best care that could be obtained and physicians did their best to stay his life, but Friday evening at 11:30 o'clock the end came.

Harry Hill, who was born in Grayling, August 6, 1891, had lived here his entire life time, except for the time he spent in the service of his country, which was from the 15th of September, 1918 to June 28th of this year. He was the son of Henry Hill and Martha Anne Dickson, the former who passed away when he was but a young boy. Mrs. Hill was then left alone with her small son, and together they enjoyed each other's companionship, until the Christmas of 1917, when she passed away. He attended the Grayling schools graduating therefrom with the class of '11. Harry was always a general favorite with his teachers and was considered a good scholar. On leaving school he accepted a position as book-keeper in the local freight office of the Michigan Central, which position he had held since, except for the time he was in the service. At this office he was known to ably perform his duties. Harry Hill was a friend anyone could well feel proud of. He had been a credit to the mother who seemed to devote her life in rearing him to manhood, and she had not been left unrewarded. He was a young man of quiet disposition and sterling character and popular wherever he went.

The funeral which was held at 11:00 o'clock Monday morning at Michelson Memorial church proved the high esteem in which he was held. It was conducted by the Marine order of which the deceased was an active member. Local soldiers and sailors, clad in their uniforms met at the Town hall and as the funeral cortege came up Peninsular avenue from the Bunting home they fell in single file of two lines at Ottawa street and accompanied it to the church. At the church many beautiful anthems were rendered by the choir and Miss Parr sang a solo very nicely. Rev. Doty delivered an impressive sermon, and Chaplain Alfred E. Sorenson, who but a short time ago returned from overseas, spoke a few words in tribute to the spoke a few words in tribute to the deceased.

Interment was in Elmwood cemetery and that day there was laid to rest beside the remains of his father and mother one of the noblest young men that Grayling ever produced—clean in mind, clean in person and clean in spirit, a never-failing friend and brother, in whose heart there was no malice and from whose lips there was no slander. He did his work nobly here on this earth and left behind a splendid example of young manhood.

We have on display a number of attractive articles in the most beautiful needle cut glass ware. Suitable for gifts.

The Michigan Central passenger trains, which have been running on Sundays during the summer have been discontinued. Also the Resort train, which left Grayling daily at 7:00 a. m. and returned at 7:30 in the evening has been taken off. ## Suppose Some Autos were Produced without a Name?

Can you imagine any level-headed person buying one when a standard built, nationally advertised car could be bought for the same price? Same applies to clothes, for whether you believe it or not, there are still men who buy clothes without knowledge of where they come from, who made them or how—and this in spite of the fact that our prices are always lower because of our no-sale policy.

You don't have to be a judge of merchandise to judge of merchandise to get your dollar's worth here—our goods are as standard as Wilson would make the American form of democracy. The quality is guaranteed by us and again by such nationally known names as—

HEAVY LOSS IN TEXAS STORM

DEATH LIST MOUNTING AND PROPERTY DAMAGE RUNS INTO MILLIONS.

HUNDREDS MAY BE KILLED

Hurricane Had Swept Golf Coast for Nearly a Week—Galveston Saved By Powerful Sea Wall.

Washington—A mounting death list and extensive property damage was shown in reports early Tuesday from the Texas coastal region swept by a tropical hurricane from the Gulf of Mexico last Sunday.

Varying reports placed the death list at from 25 in Corpus Christi alone to more than 130. The latter figure included reports of bodies recovered in Neuces bay, on which Corpus Christi is situated.

Property damage in Corpus Christi alone was estimated at more than $4,000,000, while many cities and towns along the coast in the vicinity of that place also suffered heavily.

Wire Service Interrupted.

Dallas, Tex.—Driving furiously into Texas coast, principally in the section southwest of Galveston, the tropical hurricane that has skirted the United States gulf coast for nearly a week swept inland near the Mexican border Sunday.

Wire communication was interrupted in most of the affected area, and the extent of the storm's damage could not be learned accurately.

Galveston, where considerable anxiety had been felt, apparently was struck by the edge of the storm, and the city was saved from considerable damage by the powerful government sea wall constructed after the 1900 disaster.

Mr. Patterson was driving the car. He had volunteered his services to assist in taking care of the presidential party here. The others were occupants of the Patterson machine. Witnesses said Patterson was trying to regain the position his automobile had lost in the line. It was 17 automobiles back from the car bearing President and Mrs. Wilson.

While Patterson was attempting to regain his position a spectator's automobile is said to have crossed ahead of him, and in trying to avoid this car his machine struck another and overturned.

REFUSED TO BE MIXED UP

Spectator at Moving Picture Show Saw Trouble Ahead and Didn't Want to Witness It.

"I saw you at the moving picture show last evening," said the fat plumber, "but when I looked for you a little later I missed you."

"Yes, I got up and went home."

"When was that?"

"I left when the villain began to lay a snare for the wife of the man who had to stay at his office on account of business."

"Did you see any more of the picture?"

"No."

"And you left at the most interesting part?"

"Yes."

"Why?"

"I knew if things kept on as they were headed there would be a fuss pretty soon between the two men, or between the man and his wife, and I made up my mind I wouldn't be mixed up in anybody's domestic troubles."

"The Body and the Emotions."

The official pessimist of a small Western city, who had wrestled with chronic dyspepsia for years, stood in front of the post office as the noon whistles sounded.

"Twelve o'clock, eh?" he said, half to an acquaintance. "Well, I'm going home to dinner. If dinner ain't ready, I'm going to raise hell; and if it is ready, I ain't going to eat a bite."

JOHNSON DECLARES WILSON A DICTATOR

Californian Introduced to St. Louis Audience by Democrat.

TALKS TO INDIANA PEOPLE

Johnson, Borah and McCormick Reply to Recent Speeches of President—Want American People to Know the Facts.

St. Louis, Sept. 13.—Introduced by Dr. John H. Shinn, former Democratic candidate for mayor, to one of the largest audiences that ever filled the Coliseum, Senator Hiram Johnson of California, pounded home argument after argument against the League of Nations until the vast assemblage was brought to its feet cheering time and again.

Speaking from the same platform where a week ago President Wilson hurled the epithet of "quitters" at his opponents, Senator Johnson told the president a dictator who had "arrogated to himself the right to dispose of our blood through secrecy," and pictured the proposed covenant as a patchwork of secret treaties entered into by the various nations before we entered the war.

Blames H. C. L. on President. Indianapolis, Sept. 12.—Undeniedly the people of Indianapolis are concerned over the arguments for and against ratification of the League of Nations covenant. When President Wilson spoke here last Friday he contributed to that concern by assuring his audience that the high cost of living would be reduced through immediate acceptance of the covenant without reservations.

But it was evident at Tomlinson hall that the president did not convert permanently all of the city to his point of view. Senator Hiram Johnson of California, delivering his second address on his speaking campaign in behalf of the senate reservationists, obtained from his audience definitely expressed agreement when he declared: "If any single individual can be charged with the high cost of living, that man is Woodrow Wilson."

The senator devoted a large share of his speech to answering the president's charge that delay in ratification was sustaining the living cost.

"He takes the two months that the league and treaty have been before the American people and senate with the high cost of living," Senator Johnson said. "But he conveniently forgets the eight months he spent abroad, secretly plotting our resources and our man power to European and Asiatic governments. The living cost in December and January last were substantially the same as they are today. But he had neither the time nor inclination to deal with the problem then."

"But now the president would frighten us into immediate ratification of his treaty by a cheap and specious statement."

Treaty Foes Answer Wilson. Chicago, Sept. 11.—Many thousands were unable to gain admission to the Auditorium last night when Senators Johnson, Borah and McCormick opened their campaign in opposition to the League of Nations and the peace treaty.

Senator McCormick received cheers when he declared that while "the chief spokesman for America stood there (at the peace conference), his gaze enraptured by the sight, Lloyd George sat down in the cockpit and wrote the League of Nations."

Senator Johnson declared that when the treaty finally did reach the senate it was found not to be a "document" responding to the idealistic phrases and altruistic doctrines, but "an instrument that spends our treasure and our blood for the maintenance of the British empire and the Japanese empire."

His Ailment. "Brudden and sistals," severely said good old Parson Bagster, "now dat de but has circumnavigated 'round and de contents been counted, we will jine in pra' for de speedy recovery of our po' Brudder Clinch."

"But, look yuh, sah," spoke up the gentleman designated. "I ain't sick."

"Yes, yo' is, sah! Yo' got lockjaw o' de pocketbook, and got it pow'ful bad. Yo' didn't pungle up nary cent when de hat was passed."—Kansas City Star.

Californian Is Sarcastic.

"I have followed, just as you have doubtless followed," Mr. Johnson said, "the utterances of the president in his recent speaking tour. I read his opening sentence delivered at the city of Columbus when he said that he chafed at the confinement for so long a time at Washington. I felt, as I read that sentence, just as you doubtless feel, wholly sympathetic for his enforced idleness in the rigors of the White House."

"I felt, just as you doubtless felt, that the confinement in Washington, of which he complained, for a few days over a month had torn his soul and made his spirit rebel at the restraint put upon it. But I observed, my friends, that he is going to a state I am reasonably familiar with, and in which I was born, and I am hoping and praying, too, my friends, that when he reaches that state, the balmy breezes of the Pacific and the salubrious climate of California will soothe his perturbed spirit and assuage his anguished soul."

"Now, my friends, we will let him use denunciation and abuse. Thank God, the American cause I preach needs only the expression of the truth."

As to Contemptible Quitters.

"The other day at St. Louis, in a frenzy of anger, Mr. Wilson said, 'Let them show how they will prove that, having gone into an enterprise, they are not absolutely contemptible quitters if they do not see the game through.' What game, my friends?"

The Trouble with Jimmy.

Jimmy was considered the bad boy of the neighborhood, as he was always teasing the boys younger than himself. At last in self-protection several of them got together and gave Jimmy a good whipping. Leslie's mother was greatly shocked when she learned that he was mixed up in the affair. But the boy defended himself when she questioned him about it.

"He needed a licking to teach him a lesson," he said. "He is always so ungood."

Desert's Great Charm.

One great and impelling charm of the desert is its magnificent distances. A mile, or a score of miles, is nothing on the desert. Space in all its vastness seems almost illimitable there. In fancy, perhaps, the mountain range in the distance, with its uprising snow-capped peaks, may mark one of the borders of the domain over which the lone observer may claim the right to rule. There is none to dispute his right of possession or his claim to temporal authority.

Your game? The game of the American people? Not at all. "The American people play their game. They played it when they sent their sons abroad to the number of 2,000,000 and these boys valiantly upheld the traditions and honor of this country."

"That was the American people's game, but it is not the American people's game to safeguard the territorial acquisitions of England or of France or of Italy or of Japan. And that is the game that Mr. Wilson speaks of and that Mr. Wilson plays today."

"Now, the American people never have been quitters. They never have in any contest, either in their own behalf or in the behalf of humanity quit the game. They have ever seen it through. Mr. Wilson began his game at Paris, and let's see who quit in that game and who it was that forgot the American rule."

"You remember, just as I did, that he had certain celestial phrases, certain idealistic statements and certain specified principles upon which he went across the water to play his game, and, my friends, I might say to you something that we learned long, long ago in the West. In our unregenerated day, before we were as civilized as you are here in this great state, there was a saying that ripened into a proverb: 'Never sit in the other fellow's game.' The trouble with Mr. Wilson is that he has been sitting in the other fellow's game. And he got there just exactly what a man always gets who sits in another fellow's game. Armaments Not Reduced."

"He started off, as you recall, with open covenants of peace openly arrived at. You and I echoed the sentiment. All America applauded. Who quit. Who was the quitter?"

"We indorsed vociferously the freedom of the seas and the British ton grewled. Who quit?"

"He talked of removal of all economic barriers and we all yielded a ready assent. But economic barriers were forgotten. The American people didn't quit. Somebody else quit."

"He talked, my friends, of adequate guarantees given and that armaments would be reduced. No armaments were ended. None will be reduced, admittedly, under the League of Nations. Self-Determination Forgotten."

"He told us of the destruction of every arbitrary power that can separately and securely disturb the peace of the world. He never mentioned it again in Paris. The American people didn't quit. Somebody else did. He said, my friends, self-determination, self-determination for all the peoples of the earth, and every one of us believed in that doctrine. We all huzled and we said: 'We will stand behind you four square for self-determination, but he left it. The American people didn't quit. Who quit?'"

"He said there can be no league or alliance or special covenants and understandings within the general and common family of the League of Nations, and then Clemenceau made a grimace and then we had an offensive and defensive alliance with France brought to us. The American people didn't quit because they were behind him in his statement. Somebody else was the quitter."

"He said to us as he went abroad that no people can be forced to live under a sovereignty under which it does not wish to live. But Japan, with an immobile countenance, shook her head and the American people didn't quit, but somebody else quit."

Cheer for American Troops. Senator Johnson provoked a demonstration when he referred to the American forces finally stopping the great German drive on Paris.

"They required no League of Nations to do it," he exclaimed. "I have heard of men placing themselves in the hands of their creditors, but I have never yet heard of a man placing himself in the hands of his debtors. There is just one going, solvent national concern in all this world, and it is your country and my country. Why does the greatest solvent national concern on earth have to enter into a partnership with four bankrupts?"

"Just think of it, my friends, in the assembly of the League of Nations, the United States, your country and mine, the most powerful on the face of the earth, the richest in all the world, is given one vote to Great Britain's six votes."

"My friends, do you realize what the president was up against? I think I do, and he did not. His good intentions did not protect him from the European diplomacy. He read beautiful phrases while they sat with their pockets bulging with the contracts signed, sealed and delivered for carving the world. When they got all through he had his beautiful phrases and they had the countries and the peoples for whom they had bargained long before we entered the war. He brought home just what was handed to him."

Picking Pockets to Poison Mind. Senator Borah declared the people's taxes during the last few years had been spent on propaganda dedicated to telling them how powerful the people with power have been.

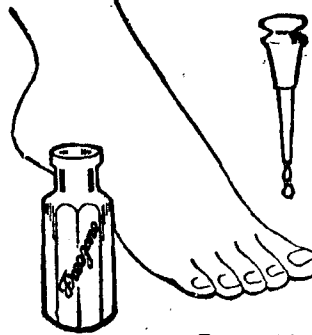

"We have been picking our pockets," he said, "to poison our minds."

Senator Borah opened his speech by saying he would attempt to discuss the question as broadly as "a man can do who has a pigmy mind."

"Now, our honored president has said in his appeal at Columbus, O., that if you have not time to read the treaty for yourselves, that he feels that you are under obligation to take the view and construction of those who wrote the treaty." Senator Borah continued. "That, my friends, it seems to me, is open to legitimate objection. In the first place, there are no two men who helped to write the treaty that now agree as to what it means."

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs clean and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Hairlem Oil has been relieving the weakness and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Hairlem Oil is enclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Hairlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. At the first sign that your kidneys are not working properly, go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Hairlem Oil capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

Too Much Appetite may be as dangerous as too little

When the skin is sallow or yellow, the eyes dull, the head aches or sleep broken and unrefreshing, the back aches, or there is a pain under the right shoulder blade—it is an indication that the body is being poisoned by poorly digested and imperfectly eliminated food-waste. ## FINE AVIATORS' CLUB

Largest Establishment of Its Kind Opened in England.

Women Are Eligible to Membership, and Both Sexes Are Taught to Fly.

London.—What is perhaps the largest and most ambitious club for aviators has just been opened at Hendon. Not the least interesting feature of the club is the American bar.

The London Flying club is a social and country sporting club to promote and give instruction in flying and aerial activities of all kinds. Women are eligible to membership.

A special feature of the clubhouse is an immense ballroom and concert hall, accommodating about two thousand persons. More than fifty sleeping rooms, equipped in the most modern way, are provided for men. The library contains a complete set of books on aviation.

Adjoining the clubhouse is an air-drome of 80 acres. Members of the club who are owners of aircraft may house their machines on the club grounds, where they are kept in order by men hired especially for the purpose.

Passenger airplanes are kept in constant readiness for the use of members for long or short flights at special terms. If one wishes to make a quick trip to a distant point he has merely to call up the club from his office in London, and by the time he reaches the field everything is in readiness for the hop off. The airplanes used in this service are specially designed touring craft, with silenced motors and saloon bodies. Fast single seaters and two seaters are available for sporting and service pilots.

U. S. CLEANS MINE FIELDS

Five Thousand Men Are at Work Destroying $50,000,000 Worth of Explosives.

London.—More than half of the mines laid by the American navy in the North Sea, in a field 250 miles long and 30 miles wide, from the Dogger bank off the Dutch coast to the Scandinavian waters, have been destroyed by an American mine-sweeping fleet.

If good weather continues, the work will be finished before winter; if not, the mine sweeping will extend long into 1920. The operations are under the direction of Admiral Strauss, who has his headquarters at Inverness.

Seventy-five ships with a total complement of 5,000 men are cleaning up the mine fields, destroying all the mines, which it cost more than $500 each to lay. The total cost of laying the American mine field was nearly $50,000,000.

If the American mine sweepers have not finished their job by the middle of September, the ships will winter in southern ports and the men

The capabilities of the latest type of airplane will be demonstrated on the club air-drome for the benefit of the members.

A flying school is established on the air-drome, with pilots available for teaching ordinary and stunt flying.

Interclub displays and contests are being organized, not only between the London Flying club and other clubs in England, but also with foreign clubs. Members have an interchange of privileges with the Sussex County Aero club at Shoreham, where there is an air-drome within easy flying distance from Hendon. A good connecting link is thus formed with such resorts as Brighton, Worthing and Bognor.

At one side of the clubhouse, on a beautiful terrace, there are several tennis courts. It is hoped in the near future to establish the club as a center of general sporting instruction.

World's Greatest Fish Story. London.—Angling off Deal, Alfred Norton caught 824 fish with one rod in 16 hours, hauling them up three, four and five at a time. Norton says this is a world's record.

Plans to Solve the Problem of Congestion by Means of Sub-surface Construction.

Paris.—French cities, particularly Paris, wish to grow without becoming ugly. Hence they're going to build down, instead of up.

Where New York, Chicago, Kansas City and other big American cities have solved their problem of congestion by building skywards, Paris hopes to preserve her beauty by sub-surface construction.

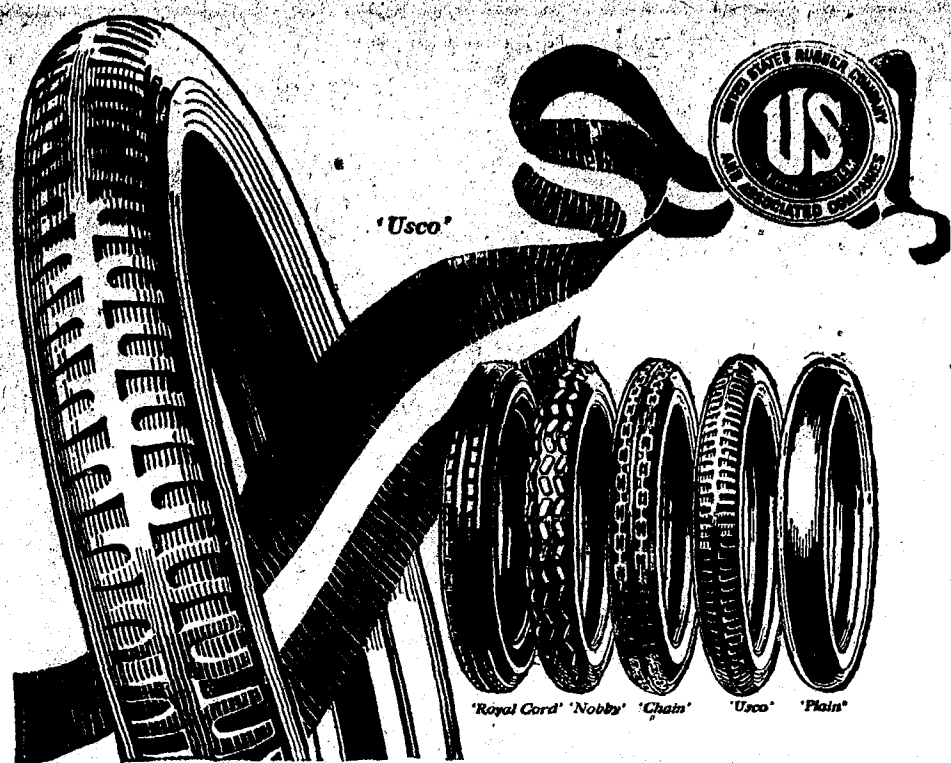

Paris has just reopened her national competition in beautifying the city that was interrupted by the war. Underground building is one plan already accepted. The necessity for this is due to the fact that buildings are limited to six stories. Paris designers believe beauty of municipal architecture is enhanced by streets that present a long vista with an even skyline.

An Englishman has invented apparatus to electrolyze sea water on shipboard to form a disinfectant.

San Francisco.—"How do they do it?" police asked here the other night, when after a month or so of prohibition, 81 arrests were made for drunkenness. It was a big wet night in the annals of the police department here.

"Tiredest" Person Gets a Rest. St. Paul, Minn.—Lewis Smith admits he is the "tiredest person" in St. Paul. He won't work, can't eat, and will sleep. Detective Quaries advised the court. The court gave him a 15 days' "rest."

We Vouch for Them

Of all the tires that are made, —why do you suppose we prefer to sell United States Tires?

Because they are made by the biggest rubber company in the world. And they know how to build good tires.

They have choice of materials,—they have immense facilities,—they employ many exclusive methods.

They can go to greater lengths in testing, improving and perfecting the things that make good tires.

We find it good business to sell United States Tires.

And—you will find it good business to buy them. They are here—a tire for every need.

United States Tires are Good Tires

We know United States tires are good tires. That's why we sell them.

COUNTY AGENTS COLUMN

The executive committees of the Barry, Oakland and Van Buren county farm bureaus have approved a membership fee of ten dollars, five dollars of which goes to the State farm bureau. These men recognize that it is not a question of how cheap an organization can be run, but how well it can be made to serve the people in whose interest it is working. With every other class of business organization to force down the price which the farmer will receive for the things he produces, he is compelled to organize or see his business ruined. Without efficient business organization he has no official standing among the other industries of the country. For the handling of those business problems the farmer cannot lay claim to the use of funds appropriated by the nation, state or county. And while the nation, state and county can with perfect propriety appropriate for the introduction and encouragement of those better agricultural practices which are educational and tend to keep down waste and unnecessary high cost of production. In the same manner that they make appropriations along educational lines in almost anything else, yet when it comes to the business proposition of the farmer taking care of his own business interests among those of labor, manufacturing, distribution and transportation, he must look after himself the same as other lines of business do. The laboring man thinks nothing these days of putting up ten dollars to his union; the mercantile man from $25.00 to $100.00 to his association; the capitalist knowing the potency of well financed organization, thinks nothing of assessments running to many thousands of dollars per year. It is only the farmer of the past who has the foolish idea that he could get somewhere on one dollar per year.

In the readjustment that is bound to come along the lines of living costs, what is going to be the outcome? Is labor, so well organized, going to suffer a lowering of wages and still pay the producers high prices for the necessities of life? Hardly. The capitalist, still better organized and financed, going to relinquish its hitherto strongly entrenched position whereby it has been enabled to get the lion's share of the dollar produced? Not on your life. Are manufacturers, distributors of foods and other necessities of life, transportation systems, speculators, landlords and numerous closely knit and well organized agencies that stand between the producers and the consumers going to be generous and assure the cut? They are NOT! Or are the unorganized or dollar a year organized farmers going to be the goat? To the man up a tree it looks as tho THEY ARE—unless they revise their ideas and get busy suddenly.
